§7–102.

- (a) The court may decree a limited divorce on the following grounds:
- (1) cruelty of treatment of the complaining party or of a minor child of the complaining party;
- (2) excessively vicious conduct to the complaining party or to a minor child of the complaining party;
 - (3) desertion; or
- (4) separation, if the parties are living separate and apart without cohabitation.
- (b) The court may decree a divorce under this section for a limited time or for an indefinite time.
- (c) The court that granted a decree of limited divorce may revoke the decree at any time on the joint application of the parties.
- (d) If an absolute divorce is prayed and the evidence is sufficient to entitle the parties to a limited divorce, but not to an absolute divorce, the court may decree a limited divorce.
